NEWBERN, Dec. 28.

ON Monday laſt, the Honourable WILLIAM TRYAN, Eſq; Lieutenant Governor of this Province, with his Lady, arrived here from Cape-Fear; he was met about 8 Miles from Town by a great Number of Gentlemen, who accompanied him to Newbern, and conducted him to Lodgings prepared for his Reception; where he was immediately ſaluted with 19 Guns from the Artillery.—In the Evening the Town was handſomely illuminated, Bonfires were lighted, and plenty of Liquor given to the Populace.

On Wedneſday, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Common Council, of this Borough, waited on his Honour the Lieutenant-Governor, with their congratulatory Addreſs; which was delivered by Mr. Recorder, as follows:

To the Honourable WILLIAM TRYAN, Eſq; Lieutenant Governor of the Province of North-Carolina.

The Humble ADDRESS of the CORPORATION of Newbern.

May it pleaſe your Honour,

HIS Majeſty's dutiful and Loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Common Council, of the Town of Newbern, beg Leave to congratulate your Honour, upon your Arrival in this Borough.

Your Appointment, Sir, to the Honourable Station of Lieutenant Governor of this Province, by his preſent Majeſty, whoſe ſhining Vertues ſo juſtly command the Veneration of all his Subjects, gives them the ſtrongeſt Reaſon to expect, that they will, under your Government, be protected in the Enjoyment of all the invaluable Rights and Liberties, which they claim as Britiſh Subjects.

As we doubt not but your Honour will meet with unfeigned marks of Duty and Reſpect, from all his Majeſty's dutiful and Loyal Subjects of this Government; ſo we in particular beg Leave to aſſure your Honour, that we will contribute every Thing in our Power, and cheerfully embrace every Opportunity, of making your Adminiſtration eaſy and agreeable.

To which ADDRESS his Honour was pleaſed to return the following ANSWER,

To the MAYOR, Recorder, Aldermen, and Common Council of the Borough of Newbern.

Gentlemen,

I Thank you for your Congratulations on my Arrival in this Borough.

His Majeſty's appointing me Lieutenant-Governor to this Province, is very grateful to me, as an Honour received from a Prince, who has endeared himſelf to his People by his ſteady Attachment to the Intereſt and Welfare of all his Loyal Subjects.

When the Adminiſtration of this Province devolves upon me, you may be aſſured I ſhall purſue every Meaſure in my Power, for its Benefit and Proſperity. The

The Reſpect and Civilities I receive from the Gentlemen of this Province, is very flattering to me; and I ſhall retain the propereſt Senſe of the warm Aſſurances the Corporation of this Borough gives me, to make my Adminiſtration eaſy and agreable.

In the Evening, there was a very elegant BALL, in the Great Ball-Room in the Court houſe, where were preſent his Honour the Governor, and his Lady, the Mayor, Mr. Recorder, and near 100 Gentlemen and Ladies.——About Ten in the Evening the Company withdrew to the Long Room over the Ball-Room, where was ſpread a very elegant Collation: After Supper, the Gentlemen and Ladies returned to the Ball-Room, and concluded the Evening with all imaginable Agreeableneſs and Satisfaction. The Courthouſe was beautifully illuminated the whole Evening.

On Thurſday, being the Feaſt of St. John the Baptiſt, the Members of the Ancient and Honourable Society of FREE and ACCEPTED MASONS, belonging to the LODGE in this Town, met at their Lodge-Room; and after going thro' the neceſſary Buſineſs of the Day, retired to the Long Room in the Courthouſe, to dine, where was ſerved up an elegant Dinner; the Lieutenant-Governor honoured them with his Company; where alſo dined many other Gentlemen: The uſual and proper Healths were drank; and at drinking the KING and the CRAFT the Artillery fired 3. 3. 3.

LONDON, September 8.

We are told the Officers belonging to the dock-yards of Portſmouth and Plymouth, are extreamly cautious of admitting foreigners into thoſe places.

It is now ſaid, our court will oppoſe any deſign the Spaniards may have formed, to effect a ſettlement on the coaſt of Guiney; which is contrary to ſeveral ancient treaties now ſubſiſting between the two courts.

Sept. 10. It is now ſaid, a Royal Yatch will ſail in a few Days for Holland, to bring over his Serene Highneſs the Duke of Mecklenbourgh Strelitz to England.

It is ſaid in ſome of the foreign prints, that the following is the manner in which the ſupplies will be raiſed in England, for the ſervice of the enſuing year:—It is computed that ſeven millions will be required to defray the national expences:—The land tax, which will continue at 4 s. in the pound, will amount to two millions:—The malt tax will be 750,000 l. The ſinking fund, by the great increaſe of commerce, will amount to about three millions.—There will then remain to be raiſed by loan, the ſum of one million two hundred and fifty thouſand pounds Sterling, which will be done by lottery; unleſs the whole ſum can be ſupplied by the produce of the ſale of lands in America, and the ranſom of the Manillas.

We are aſſured that 10,000 ſeamen will forthwith be raiſed in order to man the fleet that is now getting ready with all expedition.

WILMINGTON, November 19.

Extract of a Letter from New-York, to a Gentlemen in this Town, dated November 1. 1764.

—"A few days ago was tried here, the important Cauſe between Thomas Forſey and Waddel Cunningham: The Trial laſted ten Hours, the Jury ſat all Night, and next Day brought in a Verdict for the Plaintiff (Forſey) of £. 1500. Damages, beſides Coſts of Suit. However, Mr. Cunningham is endeavouring to obtain an Appeal, which no doubt will be granted; tho' 'tis moſt People's Opinion he won't be a Proffiter by having it tried in London."—
